Location

1A Grove Road is situated on the eastern edge of Stratford town centre and is an approximate 5 minute walk into the centre of town. Stratford is a thriving historical town with an affluent catchment population in the region of 55,000 people which swells, thanks to its popularity as a tourist destination, to over 2.5 million visitors each year. The town benefits from excellent road communications being situated close to Junction 15 of the M40 and just 0.5 miles from the A46 in the heart of the Midlands.
