Location

The building is located in the heart of Coventry city centre, and is part of the £1.5 billion regeneration of the Friargate area. Both the business district and Coventry's main shopping centre are close by. The mainline train station is a two-minute walk away, accessed via tree-lined boulevards and landscaped gardens.

Description

Friars House is a landmark building, perfectly located in Coventry city centre. Whether you are looking for space for 1 person or more this space can accommodate you. All offices have natural daylight and have been fully furnished to a high standard. High-capacity bandwidth and a comprehensive telephony system are already in place, allowing flexibility for clients of all sizes.

A suite of glass-fronted meeting rooms sits centrally, offering large screen monitors and the latest ClickShare technology for simple transfer from laptop to screen. A fully equipped kitchen and break out area offers clients free teas and coffees, together with space to relax!
